* Exposition continues from Friday evening to Sunday evening continuously. It is suspended only during Masses and Saturday midnight to Sunday 05:00. However, due to the government curfew, only the Fathers of the Oratory will be allowed in the church from 23:30 - 05:00.

The sacrament of confession will be continuously available throughout the Forty Hours, suspended only during Masses and Friday midnight - 5am Saturday morning.

All are welcome to attend the Forty Hours devotion for as long or short a period as desired. It can be good, if you are able, to spend some time on each of the three days participating in the devotion. The opening Mass on Friday at 5.30pm is a particularly solemn and moving celebration in which all are warmly invited to participate.
